Dear old Dede:

How glad we were to hear that you were still alive, but it was a surprise to get the news in the shape of a Wedding Announce--ment, the letter had been sent from Columbus to the Chicago office then they enclosed it in a Co. envelope and sent it on here, Will was away at the time so it was here two or three days before I knew a thing about it. When Will came home and sat down to look over his mail I heard him say Oh Peggie the Bad Bad girl she has gone and done it. I could not think who or what he was talking about, but I soon found out.

Well Edith dear I was glad, and still it made me kind of blue, I dont know why, Only I guess I thought that I ought to have known all about it You know

You dear Edith, that we BOTH Wish You all the Happiness and success that it is possible to have.

When you find time write and tell me all about your new home, how it all came about and all the rest of it, you know I want to be told all about it.

We have been living in St. Louis since May, have a nice little Flat and am having a lot of company all doing the Fair.

Have you any thoughts of coming to St. Louis before the Fair closes, If so, you know where to come. How I would like to see you.

I will say good night dear Dede with love from us both, and kind remembrence to Our Dede's husband.

Lovingly your old friend,

Maggie Hagstrom.

Dear Edith:

I wonder will this letter ever reach you,or if you are still in the land of the living?I wonder Edith dear whiy you never wrote to Peggie after you were married,Just as soon as I received your wedding card I wrote to you,and how I looked and longed for a letter.

You do not know Edith how you came into our lives and became as one be-longing to us,we both thought so much of you,think of you now,and will always think of you even if we never see you or hear of you again,you have a little corner in our hearts that will always belong to Edith and no one else.

I have been living in St.Louis almost a year,expect to be here a few months yet,perhaps a year,while living here I became acquainted with a family who were from Cal.The young lady and I became greate friends,I liked her so well,She is not like you at all,still in so many ways she reminded me of you,and quite often I forgot my self and would call her Edith.Well to make a long storey short,that Family has gone back to Cal. to live,and not so very far from you,they are now at 212 Ave.57. The last night they were in St.Louis the young lady slept at my house,I have asked her to call on you and tell you all about your old friends,I now Dede dear that you want to know all about Peggie and her Bil.The young Ladys name is Miss Anna Clippinger, I think that you wil like her,I hope you will for my sake as well as for her own,I like you both so well.I have received word of T.B. new son,Greate isn't it.Best love from us both for you and your husband,

Peggie
